The Most Remarkable Offerings in Women's Organdy Dresses, Shirt Waists, Wash Skirts, etc., of the season.

The bargains now offered in these goods are too valuable to be missed. In our opinion no merchandise offerings equal in quality and money-saving importance have ever been united in a single advertisement of any Washington firm. The prices are truly astonishing, and even the word "sacrifice" hardly tells of the magnitude of the bargains. Clearance is our only object, hence-

Question Raised in Regard to Price Paid for Gravel.

Anterial Used in Street Improvements -Injunction Against Laying Railroad Track-General Matters.

Evening Star Bureau, No. 701 King Street, Bell Telephone No. 106.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., August 28, 1809. In regard to the letter which Mayor Simpson had written to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia asking for the name of any local official qualified to give an export opinion as to the quality of gravel as witness. found in a bank, and its suitability for street construction, the mayor this mornsettled one point, that of the quality of gravel now being used by the street committee in graveling several streets in this city. Mr. Morris Hecker, whom the District Commissioners recommended, had visited this city at .ae instance of a special council committee appointed to examine into the condition of the gravel being used. According to his opinion the material was excellent, and the work was being done in

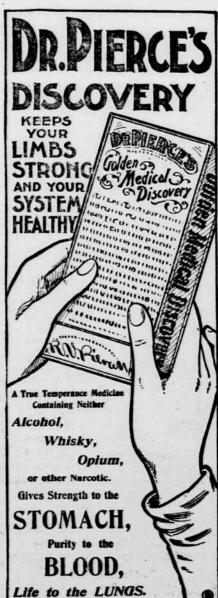

But, while this question was satisfactor-fly disposed of, there was another important matter yet open for investigation, in the price being paid for the gravel. The city auditor's books, he said, would show that while now 65 cents per cubic yard was the price paid, at former dates the figures were 50 and 60 cents, respectively, for the same material

These facts were significant, he continued, and coupled with statements that gravel of the same material could be procured for less money, the supposition was unavoid-able that the price now being paid was too high. Mayor Simpson said that this latter point would be thoroughly investigated.

Today's Schedule.

Washington at St. Louis. Baltimore at Cincinnati. Brooklyn at Pittsburg. Boston at Cleveland. Philadelphia at Louisville. New York at Chicago.

The reconstructed Senators moved on to St. Louis Saturday night from Cincinnati and yesterday played two games with the Tebeau Perfectos. The first game was easily won by the Tebeauites, the score being 16 to 2 in their favor, while the second went to the Washington boys, 15 to 9.

The reconstruction idea was given a bad wrench yesterday, as it was found that Barry is not cut out for a third baseman, and he was yanked to the bench. Mercer relieving him and O'Brien resuming his old position in the left garden. This change proved beneficial to the Senators, as O'Brien obtained five hits, one of them being a

McFarlan and Young were the opposing wirlers in the first game, and as the latter has been doing gilt-edged work of late the outcome was a foregone conclusion. Old Cy was consistent yesterday, holding the Senators down to 10 hits, all of which were scattered throughout the nine innings. McFarlan was strong for exactly two innings, and then the bombardment commenced, the sum total of hits footing up twenty when the last St. Louis player was retired. Barry and Mercer made three of the four misplays charged against the Washington club. Jimmy Slagle and "Buck" Freeman had their batting eyes "Buck" Freeman had their batting eyes with them, the pair making six of the ten hits credited to their side.

Seventeen thousand spectators witnessed the games, and in the first contest had great sport deriding the work of the Sena-tors. But things were reversed in the sec-ond, and toward the end the crowd vented their chagrin against their own club.

The Second Game.

second game was much better played by the Washingtons, as they were able to locate the curves of Pitchers Sudhoff and Powell, and this fact made them play with more confidence. Sudhoff began twirling for the St. Louis, but after being hit hard in the third, fourth and fifth innings. he was called to the bench and Twirler Powell took up the work of saving the contest for the Perfectos. But Powell was up against a hard proposition, the Senators having settled it in their minds that they could bat, and as a result the St. Louis wirler was hit hard throughout the remaining innings of the game. Dinneen was on the rubber for the Senators in the sec-ond game, and although his curves were laced out with a noticeable regularity, he kept the hits from being made when they would have scored runs for the opposition. Both teams fielded better in the second contest, the consistent batting of the Wash-ingtons winning the game. Catcher Kittridge has not joined the enators vet, and until he does little can be expected in a winning way from the ag-gregation. It is expected the little catcher will meet his club in Louisville, as he and J. Earl Wagner left Washington for that place yesterday. Following are the scores of both games:

SATURDAY GAMES.

ienators Were Very Easy Cincinnatis.

The Senators, in reconstructed form, played their first game of the present series in the west Saturday at Cincinnati, and proved the easiest sort of propositions, the Reds winning by the score of 11 to 4. Eight errors were chalked up against the Washingtonians, and several were made that escaped the misplay column. Barry at third and Mercer in left proved poor substitutes for the players previously playing those positions, while at the bat, where it was thought they would help out, the pair were also weak. Weyhing was on the rubber for the Senators, while Hahn did the twirling for the Reds. Both pitchers were hit hard, but better support saved the home club from being defeated. Cincinnati had several "lobsters" in the game also, Seybold in right field doing poorly, while Elberfeld failed to do limself justice at third.

Third Baseman and Manager McGraw

Third Baseman and Manager McGraw was recalled to Baltimore yesterday, on account of the illness of his wife, leaving the Orioles at Louisville. It will now be demonstrated whether the birds can play without their scrappy little leader, Robin-without their scrappy little leader, Robin-son having charge of the club. Umpires O'Day and Hunt must be a pretty warm pair of arbitrators to allow the Louisvilles to work off the old trick of substituting another ball for the one in olay and thereby prevent defeat coming their way. Captain Robinson immediately protested the game, and the powers that be should give the contest to the Orioles and send Hunt to the woods as a permanen abiding place.

A successful third baseman seems to be an impossibility for the Washington club. No matter how well a man may play that position for other clubs, just as soon as he strikes this city he turns out to be a "dead one." Charley Reilly was about the best third sack guardian the Senators have had for the past ten years. There seems to be a "hoo-doo" on the position in Washington. Manager Irwin believes the Brooklyn and Manager fruit believes the Brooklyh and Baltimore clubs will fight it out between themselves as to which shall have the pen-nant, and that the birds will prove the vic-tor. The two clubs have seven games to play at the end of the season, and, should they be first and second, the series will be worth going miles to see. McGraw and Robinson have both said that if the birds had nothing harder than the Superbas to beat, their club would lead the league by a thousand miles.

When the Brooklyns return home from their western trip they will play nine games with the New Yorks, and it is now report-ed that President Soden of the Boston is negotiating with Andrew Freedman for the sale of Pitcher Willis and First Baseman Tenney. With these two men added to the Tenney. With these two men added New Yorks, the Brooklyns would have

ROCKVILLE WON.

Sandy Spring Nine Defeated by 8 3 Saturday Afternoon. The Rockville base ball team, accom panied by a large number of "rooters," visted Sandy Spring Saturday afternoon and defeated the team of that place by the score of 8 to 3. The game was the third of the series of five for the championship of Montgomery county. The first game of the series was won by Sandy Spring by the score of 6 to 5 and the second by Rockville by the score of 7 to 6. The games have awakened considerable interest among the friends of the two teams, and Saturday's friends of the two teems, and Saturday's game, like each of the two previous ones, was witnessed by a large gathering. In the game Saturday the Sandy Spring boys fielded in excellent style, but were unable to hit Nicholson, the Rockytlie pitcher, except in the second inning, when they scored all of their runs. The Rockytlies batted hard throughout, but sharp fielding kept down their score. Nicholson and Harris and Poss, for Rockytlle, and Robertson and Robertson, for Sandy Spring, were the batteries. The umpires were Messrs. Carusi and Harding of Washington. The following is the score by innings: s the score by innings:

Ten American road records were broken or established on the Merrick turnpike, in Long Island, between an early hour on Friday morning and an early hour Saturday morning.

Five each of them go to the credit of Charles Lehritter and Charles Mock, both members of the Century Road Club. Mock's records are for 200, 300 and 400 miles and for twelve and twenty-four hours. Lehritter's marks are for 1,100, 1,200, 1,300, 1,400 and 1,500 miles. Lehritter's performance consisted of the longest continuous ride ever made by a cyclist over a stand<sup>3</sup> ard outdoor course. The Grand Circuit meeting at the Readville, Mass., track closed Saturday with splendid victories by The Abbot in the free for-all trotting and Anaconda in the 2.04 pacing. The afternoon's sport was marred by the laying up of Volo Maid in the 2.25 trot and her disqualification, together with her driver, B. Demarest, both of whom are barred from the track for a year. In the first heat Volo Maid went out from the hunch, and had a commanding lead until bunch and had a commanding lead until the turn, when she dropped back suddenly. The judges did not like the driving of Volo Maid and substituted McHenry for Demarest. The Maid stepped a great second
